Dear Teachers!

We are happy to announce that the day of International Workshop in Cracow is approaching! It is taking place between 11th and 13th April in a beautiful, old city of Poland. In spring it is one of the most exciting places to be! You are going to work in a group of 33 people - 12 teachers and 21 pupils from Austria, Malta, Czech Republic, Slovakia and Poland!

“Tell me and I forget.
Teach me and I remember. Involve me and I learn.”

Among the lucky 33 are the winners of the International Competition. The aim of the workshop is to enable the pupils and teachers to get to know each other, share experience and ideas about the project. Also, to learn more about the global education and start working on the International Actions that are due to take place in the following school year.

Benjamin Franklin (1705 - 1790)

Franklin was a leading, American author and printer, political theorist, politician, postmaster, scientist, inventor, satirist, civic activist, statesman, and diplomat.

See your school presentation on the website!

Most of the school profiles are on the website and the work in the pools has already started! Those of you have sent their complete profiles after 21 March will have to wait a bit before you see it on the website, but be patient! It will be there!

LFS Warth has sent their sweet, fair trade story! Go to the website to read about how they do it!

We are waiting for your stories! Tell us about your school, interesting events, your plans concerning the International Action. You can email us or use the form on the website.

NEW RESOURCES for English Teachers!

We have added a new lesson about climate change for B+ students. On the website you can find complete instructions together with worksheets for teachers and students.

Your comments are more than welcome. Let us know what you think about this lesson by commenting on the website or sending an e-mail.
